

dr. Jeroen Moes

Quantitative & Qualitative Researcher

Extensive, interdisciplinary expertise in research design, methodology, and analysis. Loves to work on things that matter and to give advice on all things research.

JeroenMoes.eu | linkedin.com/in/jeroenmoes

Education

- ★ European University Institute – Political and Social Sciences (PhD.) – 2009–2017
- ★ European University Institute – Political and Social Sciences (M.Phil) – 2010
- ★ Radboud University Nijmegen / ICS – Social Cultural Sciences (MSc.Research) – 2006–2008
- ★ Radboud University Nijmegen – Sociology (BSc.) – 2004–2007
- ★ Radboud University Nijmegen – Cult. Anthropology & Development stud. (BSc.) – 2003–2006
- ★ Hogeschool Zuyd, Maastricht – Pedagogical Academy (propaedeutic diploma) – 2002–2003
- ★ Selection of additional trainings received:
 - Summer school in Visual Research Methods, Goldsmiths, University of London, (2012).
 - Essex Summer School in Social Science Data Analysis (2010): Advanced Social Network Analysis.
 - Various methodological workshops at the European University Institute (2009–2015).
 - Research stay at Jagiellonian University, Kraków (2007–2008): Institute for European Studies.

Experience

- ★ Maastricht University (UM), University College Maastricht (UCM; 2013–present).
 - Lecturer for >8 courses and >20 workshops per year for >300 students and some staff, managing >9 Junior Teaching Fellows across various courses and projects.
 - All my teaching revolves around research methodologies, empirical techniques and research design.
 - This includes qualitative, quantitative, and mixed methods designs, statistics, SPSS, ethnography, qualitative interviewing, survey design, social network analysis, visual methods, applied research, and thesis writing.
 - Founder & coordinator of the Methods Lab, which gives advice to students and staff on research design and methodology and organizes workshops on many research-related topics.
 - Several organizational roles, including:
 - ♦ Chair & Member of the Faculty Council for Faculty of Humanities and Sciences / Faculty of Science and Engineering.

- ◆ Member of the Board of Appeal for Examinations at UM central level.
- ◆ Member of a steering group on Continuous Professional Development of staff at UM
- ◆ Chair for the UCM Board of Surveys and Research.
- Various (applied) research projects and initiatives, including:
 - ◆ Collaboration with ITEM on a project on European identity in the Euroregion
 - ◆ Erasmus+ project CREATES, on educational innovation, where I contributed to practices in Research-Based Learning (RBL).
 - ◆ Several applied quantitative and qualitative research projects on First-Generation Academics.
 - ◆ Applied municipality-funded quantitative research on (sexual) street harassment and safety.
 - ◆ Supervisor for research projects within the UM honours programme MaRBLe, in which I hosted research projects for junior researchers on urban development, gentrification, the radical right, and social inequality.
 - ◆ Collaboration on setting up a new research agenda: Citizenship from Below (with Kai Heidemann) which addresses identity, political networks, and post-industrial heritage in the Euroregion.
 - ◆ Coordinator of Maastricht Research-Based Learning (MaRBLe); an honours programme for RBL at UCM and UM-wide
- ★ European University Institute (EUI), Florence: PhD. Research project 'Imagining Europe' (2009-2017).
 - Coordination, project and team management of 12 junior researchers in three countries for data collection. Qualitative and quantitative research design, data collection, and analysis.
 - Horizon 2020 bid within a consortium. The bid was evaluated very highly, but did not get funded. (2014-2015)
 - Organized several workshops on research methods and techniques, such as 'Online Research Methods' (2010) and Social Network Analysis (2010 & 2011).
 - Elected 'Researcher Representative' to represent the researchers within the EUI administration. Involved in organisation of curriculum, departmental meetings, researcher welfare, and logistics.
- ★ Other relevant employers & experiences:
 - Maastricht University, Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences (FASoS): Area Studies, Qualitative Research Skills II, and EU Politics. Workshops on Interview Techniques. – (2013)
 - University of Florence: Master course in International Relations and European Studies. Teaching on methodological nationalism and mixed methods in research on European identity. – (2009)
 - Utrecht University, Department of Pedagogical Sciences: Researcher for 'Wired Up: Digital media as innovative socialization practises for migrant youth' (2009).
 - Radboud University:
 - Member of accreditation commission for a new MSc(research) programme (2008-2009).
 - ICS graduate school (2006-2008). MSc.(Res) researcher.
 - Teaching assistant for 'Qualitative Research Methodology C' and 'Contemporary Social Issues'. – (2006-2007).

- Member of educational programme commission for Research Master ‘Social Cultural Sciences’ (2006–2007).
- Student representative, dept. of Cultural Anthropology (2003–2005).
- Elected President (2004–2005) and Treasurer (2003–2004) of Study Association.
- Committee member for ‘Fraternité 2020’, the first European Citizens’ Initiative (2012–2015).
- Political assistant to the PvdA faction of Maastricht city council, where I was involved in the bid for European Cultural Capital for the Euroregion (2013–2015).

Selected output (full list available on request)

- Melchior, I., & Moes, J. (forthcoming). Estonia’s patriotisms in crisis: the case of the social movement ‘My Estonia too’. In K. Heidemann (Ed.), Geometries of Crisis. Amsterdam: Amsterdam University Press.
- Moes, J., & Boreas, J. (forthcoming). Neighbourhoods in Transition: gentrification, crisis, and the absence of social activism. In K. Heidemann (Ed.), Geometries of Crisis. Amsterdam: Amsterdam University Press.
- Moes, J., Melchior, I., Derumier, A., Halteren, R. v., Hein, K., van Schaik, S., . . . Weber, M. (2020). Learning from First-Generation Academics: Social Inequality and Cultural Capital at Maastricht University. Research report for the Diversity & Inclusivity Office, Maastricht University.
- Moes, J., Laken, van der, S., & Markidis, L. (2018) Seksuele straatintimidatie onder studenten in Maastricht. Research report for the Department of Safety and Quality of Life (Veiligheid en Leefbaarheid), Maastricht Municipality & Maastricht University.
- Moes, J. (2017) Imagining Europe: Identities, Geography, and Method. PhD. Dissertation, Political Social Sciences, European University Institute (EUI), Fiesole.

Language skills

- ★ Languages that I am a (near) native speaker in:

Dutch

English

Maastrichtian

- ★ Languages I can understand fairly well, but am too self-conscious to speak out loud:

German

French

- ★ Languages I can order coffee in:

Italian

Estonian